How long has this person been involved in your ministry? How well do you know him/her? In what capacity?

What has been this person's involvement or other relevant ministry experience? (e.g., in a Bible study, lead Bible studies, just comes to large group meetings, etc.)

Please assess this person in the following areas:

Faithfulness and heart for God

Teachability

Can you confidently verify that this person does not have theological beliefs that could be disruptive and distracting in a Navigator ministry oriented training program?

Ability to relate in a team environment (e.g., positive attitude, flexibility, sensitivity to others, servant's heart)

What evidence have you observed that would indicate this person is other-centered, having a servant's heart?

Can you say this person has shown evidence that he/she is not primarily "self-absorbed", thinking only of self?

In what areas do you hope this person will benefit and grow from being a part of this Navigator Summer Training Program? (walk with God, character issues, time in the Word, ministry skills, etc.)

Briefly describe this person's spiritual and social maturity.

Have you observed any evidence in this person's life that indicates he/she intentionally seeks interaction/involvement with lost individuals? Does he/she withdraw to avoid being among the lost?

Is there anything that we should know or be aware of regarding this person's character, lifestyle, or health? (dating situation, family discord, extreme shyness, hates evangelism, mental health, etc.)

Would you recommend this person to participate in this program?

*Thank you for your honesty. Please save this completed STP reference form and E-MAIL it as an attachment to: NESTP@navigator.org
